Dear Madame/Sir,

If you are reading this letter, you have an opportunity to recruit an incredible person to support the health of your team. Annemieke Reuvecamp served our company faithfully by providing chair massage on site bi-monthly for ten years. She was well liked by our staff and treated as a team member.

Annemieke's calendar was always fully booked and the entire staff praised her therapeutic hands and the assistance she provided. As a company we were fortunate to have no repetitive task injuries or claims and have to believe that Annemieke's efforts in part contributed to our good fortune.

We rarely cross paths with an individual who is as talented and committed as Annemieke. I personally cannot shower greater praise on this person. You will be doing your firm a great service by hiring Annemieke and having her join your team. If you require any further information, please feel free to contact me at any time.

Best regards,

Paul Cripps
